

Privacy Policy

The Agent will preserve the confidentiality of the Client. The Agent will not disclose or allow to be disclosed confidential information about the Client or the Client's business without the Client's written consent, unless required by law.

If applicable, the Agent will preserve the confidentiality of the Client's medical records and documents in accordance with the Privacy Act.